I am writing, in my capacity as Councillor for Lozells Ward, to formally object to the license application submitted to Birmingham City Council for the opening times of the above commercial premises. These commercial premises are located very close to residential housing and I feel, and have been advised by local residents too, that the premises opening into the early hours of the morning will impact negatively on the quality of life of the residents living close by on Frances Road and Carpenters Road as well as Lozells Road itself.

Therefore, I formally object on the grounds that the application in its current form, if approved, would have impact on our joint efforts for the prevention of crime and disorder, public safety and the prevention of public nuisance. These are matters that are regularly discussed at the Lozells Ward Forum with the overall aim of preventing crime and disorder a key objective within the Lozells Ward Plan.

I fully support businesses, in particular SME's which create jobs and welcome the business opening up in Lozells, but would strongly object to the application for opening hours until 2am.

May I please request that this matter is referred for a hearing at which I am able to provide representation for the people of Lozells.

Many thanks in advance.

Best wishes,

Waseem

To whom it may concern,

I live at Lozells Road, and I object to the extended opening times for this restaurant to 2.00am as it will cause disturbances for me and my young family. I cannot understand why you would want to be open so late in a residential neighbourhood. The people who operate these businesses can afford to live in quieter neighbourhoods and we are trying to create one, this if granted will not help Lozells.

Lozells has changed for the better over the years and this late opening will cause issues for all the local residents people passing through our neighbourhood at all hours of the morning. There are ample places which are open late and there is no need for this.

We are really concerned about this and are happy for it to be till 11.00pm which is respectable.

Many thanks

Hi Cllr Zaffar

I write regards the recent planning application from 161 Lozells Road, Birmingham, B19 2TP trading as Peppers who have applied for extended opening times from 11.00am to 2.00am.

Me and my family who live on [redacted] are full against this as it will add to the issues we already have with parking and noise and the added rubbish it will bring. They have left their rubbish out in the street for ages and this somehow ended up in Shropshire was not a good sign to start off with plus we already have a number of fast food outlets on the same road which is open till 3am and I don't see the need for another in the residential area.

We are working hard to create a harmonious neighbourhood where working class people can have a decent nights sleep without having to worry about people coming in and out of a food shop in the early hours 7 days a week and disturbing them.

I hope you can support us in this matter.

To whom it may concern and Cllr Zaffar,

I live [redacted] Lozells Road, [redacted] new food shop SRN supplies limited trading as peppers on 161 Lozells Road.

I object against their application for a licence for extended hours till 2.00am as my young family will be disturbed by the noise and parking issues. It has been open 2 days and the bins are overflowing and the main road parking is already an issue. We are families who work early and have school run and need a level at peace during the early hours of the morning.

I hope this is not granted as we have a few restaurants in Lozells already opened till the early hours, there is no need for another one in a highly residential area.

NOTES ON DEMONSTRATING ENTITLEMENT TO WORK IN THE UK

Entitlement to work/Immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Documents which demonstrate entitlement to work in the UK

- An expired or current passport showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a British citizen or a citizen of the UK and Colonies having the right of abode in the UK [please see note below about which sections of the passport to copy].

- A current Immigration Status Document issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK or has no time limit on their stay in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man or Ireland when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A certificate of registration or naturalisation as a British citizen, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.

- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is allowed to stay in the UK and is currently allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder which indicates that the named person can currently stay in the UK and is allowed to work relation to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Residence Card issued by the Home Office to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights or residence.
- A current Immigration Status Document containing a photograph issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person may stay in the UK, and is allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A Certificate of Application, less than 6 months old, issued by the Home Office under regulation 18(3) or 20(2) of the Immigration (European Economic Area) Regulations 2016, to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence.
- Reasonable evidence that the person has an outstanding application to vary their permission to be in the UK with the Home Office such as the Home Office acknowledgement letter or proof of postage evidence, or reasonable evidence that the person has an appeal or administrative review pending on an immigration decision, such as an appeal or administrative review reference number.
- Reasonable evidence that a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence in exercising treaty rights in the UK including:-
 - evidence of the applicant's own identity – such as a passport,

 - evidence that the European Economic Area national has a right of permanent residence in the UK or is one of the following if they have been in the UK for more than 3 months:
 - (i) working e.g. employment contract, wage slips, letter from the employer,
 - (ii) self-employed e.g. contracts, invoices, or audited accounts with a bank,
 - (iii) studying e.g. letter from the school, college or university and evidence of sufficient funds; or
 - (iv) self-sufficient e.g. bank statements.

Family members of European Economic Area nationals who are studying or financially independent must also provide evidence that the European Economic Area national and any family members hold comprehensive sickness insurance in the UK. This can include a private medical insurance policy, an EHIC card or an S1, S2 or S3 form.

Original documents must not be sent to licensing authorities. If the document copied is a passport, a copy of the following pages should be provided:-

- (i) any page containing the holder's personal details including nationality;
- (ii) any page containing the holder's photograph;
- (iii) any page containing the holder's signature;
- (iv) any page containing the date of expiry; and
- (v) any page containing information indicating the holder has permission to enter or remain in the UK and is permitted to work.

If the document is not a passport, a copy of the whole document should be provided.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.
