3. Recommendations
3.1.	The Health & Wellbeing Board should broker the strategic drive for Primary Preventative effort.
3.2.	The Early Help & Safeguarding Partnership should use the evidence to establish a common cultural understanding of the impact of adverse experiences in childhood, especially in schools, and nurture locality multi-agent learning to embed it.
3.3.	The Early Help & Safeguarding Partnership should broker an action learning set of specialist services to identify the opportunities and benefits of using Routine Enquiry of adverse experiences in childhood in their client groups.
3.4.	The Early Help & Safeguarding Partnership should align its outcome work stream to take account of the impact of the preventative focus and its implications.

4. Background
4.1	The Health & Wellbeing Board discussed the primary research evidence which demonstrates the impact that Childhood Adverse Experiences have singly or in combination. The Board asked that local stakeholders explore the opportunities to respond to these impacts and reduce them in Birmingham.
4.2	The attached report documents the conclusions of these discussions held in Spring 2017. A full list of participants from a range of stakeholders is included in the report.

5. Compliance Issues
5.1	Strategy Implications
This report helps shape the developing objectives 2017-2020.
5.2	Governance & Delivery
The Health & Wellbeing board and the Early help & Safeguarding Partnership are challenged with further action and have their own governance arrangements.
5.3	Management Responsibility
Dr Dennis Wilkes
