RECENT REPORTS SUBMITTED TO THE CABINET COMMITTEE LOCAL LEADERSHIP MEETING – VERBAL UPDATE

- i) Taking Forward Local Leadership
- ii) Local Innovation Fund – Ward Innovation Proposals
- iii) Ward Action Tracker 2016/17 Information and Trends
- iv) Connecting Communities and Assets Pilot

Karen Cheney, District Head advised that she had sent out a number of emails to all District Members on the above issues.

She confirmed that the decision on the future of District Committees discussed at the Cabinet, Local Leadership meeting was currently subject to call in and she was therefore unable to discuss taking forward local leadership at great length pending the outcome of the next meeting of the Cabinet Local Leadership meeting.

Karen Cheney briefed the Committee on the Ward Action Tracker and stated that the officer to contact to arrange future Ward Committee's was Kay Thomas. She confirmed that approval had been sought for the pilot ward arrangements of ward plans and the focus was on devolving more influence down to a more local level. She detailed the 3 significant improvements and subsequently highlighted the ward tracker database which was a tool to provide more information on issues in wards and across districts and a more flexible way of working.
