Subject: AMENDED: Jungle Lounge, Monument Road

Dear Licensing

Please find below AMENDED submission that supersedes my previous comments and should be used.

I am writing to oppose granting an extended license for this premises and sale of alcohol. It will be a serious error and cause misery for residents on Monument Road and in the vicinity.

The premises is currently operating as a Shisha Lounge – and I have had numerous complaints from residents with regards to its existing operating hours. Obtaining a license until 1am in the morning Sunday to Monday will cause untold misery for residents, and a license until 3am on Friday to Saturday will only compound existing issues. The extended service of alcohol on a premises with which residents already have existing issues will only exacerbate problems.

The area is well known for its issues around noise and antisocial behaviour and I have concerns approving this license will only serve to enhance these negative characteristics.

The existing business, in my opinion, has been burden on residents due to late night noise pollution, alleged antisocial behaviour, and dreadful illegal parking blocking this main access route. I have previously driven down this route on evenings of operation after 10pm and found absolute gridlock of traffic that is more familiar to a 5pm rush hour – all due to new businesses attracting nuisance parking.

I would also remark that having written to Jungle Shisha on a previous occasion to relay concerns from residents I believe I have never received a response. I would argue this does not portray a license holder that would seek to engage with the community or representatives.

I would ask that the licensing committee also liaise with the police regarding reports in this area linked to commercial premises and consider if we want to add to the problems of residents. Extending hours and allowing extended alcohol service would undermine of the chief purposes of licensing – to prevent nuisance, and I hope members will reflect on that before their decision.

Licensing will be aware I have previously raised concerns with regards to businesses operating on Monument Road.

Thanks

Application to vary hours for entertainments, late night refreshments and sale of alcohol
From Cllr Kath Hartley and Cllr. Albert Bore, Ladywood Ward

We object to any extension of the hours of operation of this venue because of the impact that it already has with its current licensed arrangements and of how any increase in the activities there would impact on local people and passers-by:

- Vehicles parked on-street on double yellow lines on both sides of Monument Rd. by customers are creating road safety dangers at the traffic lights at the Hagley Rd. junction and down to Plough and Harrow Rd. This also impacts on the Chamberlain Gardens Controlled Parking Zone arrangements outside older, Georgian residential properties on the Ladywood Ward side on the east of Monument Rd. Any extension of the hours will doubtlessly cause more issues. Ladywood residents have been complaining about this since the venue opened. Indeed, so have motorists from beyond the area.
- Monument Rd. has become even busier since the Metro works to Fiveways- when the road became an official alternative route to the Middleway- and the Clean Air Zone where we can see that non-compliant vehicles are being parked in streets off west side of Monument Rd. Air pollution has increased because of the increase in traffic. Additional use by the venue's customers can only exacerbate this.
- There are already 25 flats at the Edgbaston Student Studios- 197-199 Monument Rd. There is a recently-withdrawn planning application for a 3-storey rear extension for an additional 8 self-contained flats at 213-216 Monument Rd. (over and above the flats above shop units already in place). This should give you a clear impression of the increasingly-residential nature of this once-commercial road- most of it of Grade 11 Listed status. There should be no extension to the operating hours of any venue in this narrow, congested, mainly residential road.
- Another issue is that Monument Rd. has periodically been a hot spot for street prostitution and the other issues that arise from it. This also makes the extension of operating hours for the venue unwise.

Please add our objections to those of our colleagues in North Edgbaston Ward.

Please can you provide us with an acknowledgement of this submission?

Best regards

Subject: Jungle shisha lounge

Good afternoon, I have recently seen the new proposed timings for jungle shisha lounge to open till plus the sale of alcohol and regulated entertainment etc.

I am writing to voice my opinion against this as this is also a residential area and this will cause much nuisance and inconvenience, not to mention the antisocial behaviour.

Kind regards

I am a resident of the north Edgbaston ward and live in the Mariner Avenue estate B16.

I strongly oppose the increase in opening times of the Jungle shisha lounge on monument road, B16. Further, the alcohol licence it has obtained. I have seen dangerous parking which is a route my school children take.

This will cause parking issues and further will have anti social behaviour.

I have also copied my local MP to ensure that this is taken very seriously!

Hi

Regarding the late night licence for alcohol submitted for Jungle Shisha lounge on Monument Road, I strongly object to this. At the moment, on Thursdays and at weekends, we are plagued by anti social behaviour from 10 pm onwards due to people screaming, laughing, arguing or fighting on the way back to get a taxi or to their cars which are parked illegally on the pavement/road outside and opposite our houses. My 18 year daughter has been heckled / approached as she arrives home after a night out and we are often woken up by voices or loud music people play in their cars or taxi as they wait before they drive away.

In addition, the music they play in Jungle is so loud that we cant sit in our own back gardens in the summer unless willing to put up with their music drowning out your own conversation or chosen music.

It's already pretty bad to have Jungle close by at weekends. In the week when needing to get sleep and get up early for work in the morning it would be intolerable.

Dear Sir/Madam,
I would like to register my issues with the proposed licensing of the jungle Shisha lounge 215-218 monument rd, ladywood B168UU.

My objection is in two parts.

1: that there are enough licensed premises to cater for the needs of the area.

2: that the management have shown that they can not control the parking, noise, and behaviour of their current patrons who are sober, let alone if their patrons were intoxicated.

I am including a link to an iCloud download of 84 photographs taken by myself of illegally parked cars outside the afore mentioned premises taken by myself over a period of 3 weeks all on a Friday afternoon/evening into Saturday.

I hope that this will be of assistance in your decision I will follow up by sending a hard copy of the evidence.

Dear Sir or Madam. I on behalf of the residents on monument road and the Residents of Edgewood Court. (. Home for elderly people) who live opposite the Shisha lounge strongly oppose any such licence. The lives of those people are interrupted enough by the Noise, Illegal double parking, plus the dumping on the road and pavement of all kinds of rubbish. I understand a petition is going round at the moment on behalf of the residents. . Community Activist.
