Subject: FW: Grant Application - Tasty Idea, 77 High Street, Kings Heath, Birmingham, B14 7BH - 124948

Dear Indy,

Thank you for the notification and opportunity to make comments on the above licensing application.

The site is located within the Primary Shopping Area of the Kings Heath District Centre and the site is within an established retail centre with residential properties to the rear and with residential at first floor level.

Policies DM2 and DM6 of the Development Management in Birmingham Plan require development to be appropriate to its location, to be compatible with adjacent uses and to not lead to noise pollution. The hours of operation are restricted owing to the impact on residential amenity and that there are a number of residential uses within close proximity. There is a residential flat on the floor immediately above the premises which may be affected by levels of night time noise connected to a later opening, whilst this is a residential use in a fairly urban and retail established location, there is a reasonable expectation that there should be no noise from the take away use by way of comings and goings of staff and customers and deliveries through the night time at more sensitive times. A number of the neighbouring uses as takeaways are restricted to closing between 23:00 and 00:00 hours for this reason.

On the basis of this information that has been submitted and the nature of the surrounding uses at the site, the Planning Department would object to the submitted licensing application to extend the opening hours at the premises due to the adverse impacts on the amenity of neighbouring occupiers by way of noise and disturbance and the incompatibility with the immediate residential uses in the vicinity. The proposal would fail to accord with policies DM2 and DM6 of the Development Management Plan in Birmingham and the guidance within the NPPF.

Kind regards,

Katie Moriarty

NOTES ON DEMONSTRATING ENTITLEMENT TO WORK IN THE UK

Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Documents which demonstrate entitlement to work in the UK

- An expired or current passport showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a British citizen or a citizen of the UK and Colonies having the right of abode in the UK [please see note below about which sections of the passport to copy].
- An expired or current passport or national identity card showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Registration Certificate or document certifying permanent residence issued by the Home Office to a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Permanent Residence Card issued by the Home Office to the family member of a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder indicating that the person named is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is exempt from immigration control, is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, has the right of abode in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current Immigration Status Document issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK or has no time limit on their stay in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man or Ireland when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A certificate of registration or naturalisation as a British citizen, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.

- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is allowed to stay in the UK and is currently allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder which indicates that the named person can currently stay in the UK and is allowed to work relation to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Residence Card issued by the Home Office to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights or residence.
- A current Immigration Status Document containing a photograph issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person may stay in the UK, and is allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A Certificate of Application, less than 6 months old, issued by the Home Office under regulation 18(3) or 20(2) of the Immigration (European Economic Area) Regulations 2016, to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence.
- Reasonable evidence that the person has an outstanding application to vary their permission to be in the UK with the Home Office such as the Home Office acknowledgement letter or proof of postage evidence, or reasonable evidence that the person has an appeal or administrative review pending on an immigration decision, such as an appeal or administrative review reference number.
- Reasonable evidence that a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence in exercising treaty rights in the UK including:-
 - evidence of the applicant's own identity – such as a passport,
 - evidence of their relationship with the European Economic Area family member – e.g. a marriage certificate, civil partnership certificate or birth certificate, and
 - evidence that the European Economic Area national has a right of permanent residence in the UK or is one of the following if they have been in the UK for more than 3 months:
 - (i) working e.g. employment contract, wage slips, letter from the employer,
 - (ii) self-employed e.g. contracts, invoices, or audited accounts with a bank,
 - (iii) studying e.g. letter from the school, college or university and evidence of sufficient funds; or
 - (iv) self-sufficient e.g. bank statements.

Family members of European Economic Area nationals who are studying or financially independent must also provide evidence that the European Economic Area national and any family members hold comprehensive sickness insurance in the UK. This can include a private medical insurance policy, an EHIC card or an S1, S2 or S3 form.

Original documents must not be sent to licensing authorities. If the document copied is a passport, a copy of the following pages should be provided:-

- (i) any page containing the holder's personal details including nationality;
- (ii) any page containing the holder's photograph;
- (iii) any page containing the holder's signature;
- (iv) any page containing the date of expiry; and
- (v) any page containing information indicating the holder has permission to enter or remain in the UK and is permitted to work.

If the document is not a passport, a copy of the whole document should be provided.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.

Subject: RE: [External]: Grant Application - Tasty Idea, 77 High Street, Kings Heath, Birmingham, B14 7BH - 124948

Good morning licensing,

With regards to the premises licence application for Tasty Idea, 77 High Street, Kings Heath, Birmingham, B14 7BH

West Midlands Police have reviewed this application and are satisfied that if the below conditions are added to the licence, together with the operating conditions already offered by the applicant then the licensing objectives can be met and promoted.

The below conditions have been discussed with the applicant and agreed (as per below email chain) who is copied into this email also.

1. The premises will cease takeaway services by midnight. The premises will only permit orders that are to be delivered by delivery drivers after midnight. The general public will not be permitted on the premises after midnight, this will be clearly signposted in a public viewable area.
2. All staff employed at the premises will receive documented training of their responsibilities in accordance with the 2003 Licensing act. Staff are to receive documented refresher training a minimum of once every 12 months, signed off by the trainer or premises license holder, these documents are to be readily available for inspection by responsible authorities.
3. An incident log will be maintained at the premises. Each incident entry will detail the time, date, staff member logging the entry and details of the incident and where possible details of those involved. This log will be made readily available for inspection by responsible authorities.
4. The premises will not allow consumption of alcohol on the premises.
5. CCTV will be switched on and recording at all times the premises carries out licensable activities. Images will be retained for a period of at least 31 days and will be made available to any of the responsible authorities to view or copies produced on request. If for any reason the CCTV hard drive needs to be replaced the previous / old hard drive will be kept on site for a minimum of 31 days and made immediately available to any of the responsible authorities on request. The CCTV will be checked to ensure that it is working each day prior to licensable activity taking place. The time of the check, the identity of the person carrying this out and the result of it will be recorded in the incident log.

If the above conditions are added to the licence, then West Midlands Police have no objection to this licence application.

Good afternoon Huram,

Hope this email finds you well.

Thank you for sending the email and providing the listed information. I confirm that I agree to the criteria indicated below.

Regards

Director

Tasty Idea Ltd t/a Papa John's Pizza

Application - Tasty Idea
Ltd, 77 High Street, Kings
Heath, Birmingham, B14
7BH

The first floor apartment above the property and adjoining building belongs to Papa John's Pizza and are vacant. It has not been rented out nor do we have intentions of letting them out but used merely for storing dry stock, the property was recently inspected by the Representative from the Council Office and Marvin Stevens who is the Inspecting Officer/Watch Commander for West Midlands Fire Service in Birmingham who can confirm the flats are empty.

Our business is mainly an Online service and we will not allow customers to come in person to collect orders after 12pm as we will only be undertaking home deliveries from then. There will not be more than two members of staff present at any time in the store. We have invested heavily in Electric bikes to support reducing our Carbon Footprint as we believe strongly in this and they produce minimal noise if any compared to a standard car. I would appreciate if you please reconsider your decision to keep the business viable for us to operate as we strongly support employing staff from the local community. Can I please also ask that you view the supporting Slide Show where I have provided proof of other Fast Food establishments on the High Street that you have already granted late licences too.
