The Lord Mayor to move the following Motion:

“On behalf of the citizens of Birmingham, this Council offers its deep condolences to the Royal Family on the news of the death of Her Majesty the Queen.

During her many visits to the City, she reached out to charities, veterans, service personnel, hospitals and children and won a very special place in the hearts of the citizens of Birmingham.

Over her seven-decade reign, she showed unwavering and inspirational dedication to serving the nation and the Commonwealth, offering wise counsel in often turbulent times.

This Council gives thanks for Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth's exceptional 70 years' service and extends its deepest sympathy to King Charles, and the rest of the Royal Family, at this difficult time."
