Timeline and schematic overview – Reviews into patient safety, culture and leadership at University Hospitals Birmingham NHS Foundation Trust

Dec 22 – Jan 23 Jan-Jun 23

Patient Safety Review

Commissioned by ICB

Terms of reference agreed and review under way

Review led by former NHS England Deputy Medical Director

Report expected in Jan 2023

Any recommendations pertaining to culture or well-led will be picked up in the subsequent reviews

Culture Review

Commissioned externally by UHB Interim Chair, Dame Yve Buckland

Purpose: focus on listening to and engaging staff and then taking positive action to improve how it feels to work and thrive at UHB

Will identify any OD/other gaps that need urgently addressing and framework to address them

Scope also informed by: culture-based outputs from Patient Safety and Well-Led Review

Well-Led review

UHB to work with NHS England to undertake a Well-Led review

Terms of reference to be developed and agreed

Will include, but not limited to, Board and Trust Governance, Council of Governors development, relationships with stakeholders internal and external Patient Safety Review Joint BSol and NHS E oversight group NHS Birmingham and Solihull Patient Safety CommitteeQuality Review Chaired by Professor Liz Currently underway Hughes, Non-executive Director and led by for Quality experienced senior independent clinician former NHS England Cross party independent Deputy Medical reference group Director. Professor Mike Bewick. Chaired by Preet Kaur Gill MP Virtual Townhall Session - 23rd January - opportunity for citizens that have raised concerns raised with MP to share concerns with review team Ref group meeting - 26th January – Lead Reviewer attending to discuss

Ref group meeting - 7th February – Lead reviewer presenting draft report review process and give group members opportunity to input.