Subject: licence application - A1 Broadnews, 83 Broadstone Road

Dear Licensing,

West Midlands Police have received and reviewed the new licence application for the above premises

The premises is currently trading and licensed (3271), although the current licence is being reviewed by Trading Standards for underage issues, and being supported by West Midlands Police.

The new applicant is being made by a private limited company called A1 Broadnews and convenience store.

A check through companies house shows that this company was incorporated on the 19th March 2020, there is one officer for the company Mir Awais Kahn, who is also the only person with significant control.

There is no evidence within the application to show that the business has been sold to the new company

A check on the Police systems shows that Mir Awais Khan was the manager of the premises in November 2019 as he was one of the person that are detailed in the incident where the family of a 15 year old boy attended the shop after they had found there son had bought both alcohol and cigarettes from the premises.

Even at this point it is clear that there is a link between the old premises and who was managing it to the new applicant.

We have visited the premises on Friday 10th April 2020, when we visited the person behind the counter identified herself as Ishraf Habib, she showed us that she had recently passed a licensing qualification although she had not applied for her personal licence.

She was asked if the manager was around and she called the manager who she identified was Awais Khan (new applicant via new company). She was asked who had authorised her to sell alcohol and she told us that Abdullah Khan (current licence holder) had done so.

Abdullah Khan is not the DPS for the premises and when officers asked her who the DPS was and even named him she stated that she had never heard of him.

Awais Khan attended a short time later, and he told u that he was friends with Abdullah Khan and that he had been working as the manager in the shop for the last 3 years. When asked about the DPS Awais Khan at first said it was Adil Sadiq (the new proposed DPS for the new application), officers told him this was not the case and it was still Mr Sritharan Mailvaganam.

Awais Khan stated that he knew Mailvaganam, he lived in Manchester and had been to the premises a couple of times through the year just to drop stock off. Awais Khan had no direct way of contacting Mailvaganam, and the only way he could was through Abdullah Khan, he tried several times to contact him but was unable to do so. Advice was given on the day as to what he should do as officers were not satisfied they had a DPS with day to day control.

This goes further to show that there is a direct link between the current licence holder and the new applicant for a premise licence. This appears to be an attempt to pass the licence from one person to another so it looks like a new licence holder when in fact it is the same people involved and the ones involved in the premises which has led to the review application being submitted.

The new proposed DPS (Adil Sadiq) has declared an address of 3 Aston Road, Yardley, B28 8NZ. A check of the postcode (through the post office checker) reveals that this post code does not exist, we have also checked Aston Road and that does not exist in Yardley (or area very close to it). Sadiq through the Police intel systems has been linked to an address in Yardley, but it is not the one disclosed on the application.

West Midlands Police are also concerned that checks have shown that staff are/have been associated with crime which would undermine the crime and disorder objective West Midlands Police therefore object to this application

Subject: FW: [External]: RE: licence application - A1 Broad news, 83 Broadstone Road - Trading Standards objection to new licence application

Dear Licensing,

I wish to object to the new licence application for A1 Broad News, 83 Broadstone Road. I have examined the information contained in the new application.

There is currently a Trading Standards led licence review pending for this premises which details serious matters concerning; the protection of children from harm, public safety and the prevention of crime and disorder, that needs to be addressed at these premises. This leads from a complaint that a minor was sold alcohol, disorder arose and then following on from this Trading Standards witnessed a volunteer minor also purchasing alcohol.

From information and intelligence received from the police licensing team it would appear that the new licence application involves persons who are already involved in running the business.

In short this new application is likely to mean there to be no change of management or ownership of this premises which is likely to mean that the business continues to trade in the same unacceptable manner.

Trading Standards is of the opinion that matters can only be improved at this premises with a complete change of regime or if the premises is no-longer in possession of an alcohol licence so that minors are not compromised with all the consequences following on from such.

Birmingham City Council Licensing Service Birmingham

Representation as a responsible authority in respect of the application for a premises licence to be granted under the Licensing Act 2003 in respect of premises known as Broad News,
83 Broadstone Road
Birmingham
B26 2BY

Introduction

An application has been received from A1 Broadnews and Convenience Store Ltd for the grant of a Premises Licence at 83 Broadstone Road, Birmingham, B26 2BY. Companies House have recorded that A1 Broadnews and Convenience Store Ltd was incorporated on 19th March 2020, having one Company Director, Mr Mir Awais Khan. Mr Mir Awais Khan has provided a contact address on Companies House as 621 Bordesley Green East, Stechford, Birmingham, B33 8RY.

The application requests the following licensable activities:-

M2 – Sale of Alcohol by retail (off the premises)

And requests this licensable activity to take place:-

Sale of Alcohol

Monday – Sunday                      06:00 – 00:00

Opening hours of the premises

Monday – Sunday                      06:00 – 00:00

A Nominated Supervisor has been provided on the application as:

Mr Adil Sadiq, dob                      of 3 Ashton Road, Yardley, Birmingham, B25 8NZ. Mr Sadiq has a Personal Licence no. 9599, issued by Birmingham City Council.

Background Information

On 9th April 2020 an application was received by Birmingham City Council Licensing Section from Mr Adil Sadiq who was applying for a Premises Licence at 83 Broadstone Road, Yardley, Birmingham, B26 2BY on behalf of A1 Broadnews and Convenience Stores Ltd.

A current Premises Licence No. 3271 is in force at 83 Broadstone Road, Yardley, B26 2BY. The Premises Licence is under the name Yardley Cutprice. The current Premises Licence Holder being Mr Abdullah Khan. A Designated Premises Supervisor is on the licence, Mr Sritharan Mailvaganam. The licence has been current since 2009. There is, however, a review on this licence, at the request Birmingham Trading Standards, following a test purchase exercise whereby alcohol was sold to a person under the age of 18 years. The test purchase exercise was as a result of 2 complaints received by Trading Standards that the premises were selling age restricted products to persons under the age of 18 years. The Premises Licence Holder, Mr Abdullah Khan had been made aware of the complaints and been given advice by Trading Standards, prior to the test purchase exercise taking place. This clearly raises concern that the licensing objectives are not being met.

Licensing matters identified

A1 Broadnews and Convenience Store Ltd of 83 Broadstone Road, Yardley was incorporated shortly after the test purchase exercise by Trading Standards and it has been identified by West Midlands Police that Mr Adil Sadiq (proposed Designated Premises Supervisor) and Mr Mir Awais Khan (Company Director of A1 Broadnews and Convenience Store Ltd, proposed Premises Licence Holder) have connections with the current Premises Licence Holder, Mr Abdullah Khan and the Designated Premises Supervisor Sritharan Mailvaganam of Yardley Cut Price (Premises Licence no. 3271). Birmingham City Council General Licensing have not been provided with any evidence to show that the business run by Mr Abdullah Khan has been sold to A1 Broadnews and Convenience Store Ltd. In the likely event that the Premises Licence No. 3271 is revoked, by allowing the grant of a new Premises Licence for A1 Broadnews and Convenience Ltd, the business would be able to continue to carry on licensable activities, with the same people still in control.

Mr Mir Awais Khan attended the premises during a recent visit by West Midlands Police, where he stated that he was a manager at the store.

The proposed DPS (Mr Adil Sadiq) attended the premises on the day the test purchase exercise was carried out by Trading Standards. He stated at the time that he was a manager. Records on Birmingham City Council Licensing system shows that Mr Adil Sadiq was initially granted the Premises Licence No. 3271 as the Premises Licence Holder back in August 2008. The licence at that time was issued without a DPS. In 2010 Mr Adil Sadiq transferred the Premises Licence to Sritharan Mailvaganam, who also became the DPS. In 2017 Sritharan Mailvaganam transferred the Premises Licence to Abdullah Khan with Sritharan Mailvaganam remaining on the licence as DPS. This clearly shows that both Mr Mir Awais Khan and Mr Adil Sadiq have connections in both businesses. Mr Sadiq has applied for the Grant of a new Premises Licence on behalf of A1 Broadnews and Convenience Store Ltd. He has however declared on the document which gives consent of an individual to being specified as premises supervisor that his address is 3 Aston Road, Yardley, B28 8NZ. West Midlands Police have verified that this address does not exist.

Mr Sadiq holds a Personal Licence through Birmingham City Council. His personal licence number is 9599, issued to him on 10th May 2016.

Under Section 127 of the Licensing Act 2003 Holders and Designated Supervisors of Premises and Personal Alcohol Licences, and Club Certificates, are under a legal obligation to notify the licensing authority as soon as is reasonably practicable of any change in their name or address.

Birmingham City Council records show that Mr Sadiq is living at 64 Fastpits Road, Birmingham, B25 8NY. On the application for the new licence he gives his address as 3 Ashton Road, Yardley, B25 8NZ but on the consent form to become DPS he gives his address of 3 Aston Road, B28 8NZ which doesn't exist. This would suggest that Mr Sadiq has moved address and failed to inform the Authority. He may therefore have committed an offence under the Licensing Act 2003 for failing to notify a change in address.

Licensing Enforcement Team Recommendations to the Licensing Committee

As a Licensing Authority Birmingham City Council must carry out its licensing functions with a view to promoting the licensing objectives contained in the Act. The Act is clearly intended to prevent crime and disorder in relation to premises, as well as protect children from harm. Both these objectives are being undermined by the current licence holder who is associated with the new applicant. Licensing Enforcement supports West Midlands Police in their objection to A1 Broadnews and Convenience Store Ltd being granted with a licence.

NOTES ON DEMONSTRATING ENTITLEMENT TO WORK IN THE UK

Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Documents which demonstrate entitlement to work in the UK

- An expired or current passport showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a British citizen or a citizen of the UK and Colonies having the right of abode in the UK [please see note below about which sections of the passport to copy].
- An expired or current passport or national identity card showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Registration Certificate or document certifying permanent residence issued by the Home Office to a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Permanent Residence Card issued by the Home Office to the family member of a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder indicating that the person named is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is exempt from immigration control, is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, has the right of abode in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current Immigration Status Document issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK or has no time limit on their stay in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man or Ireland when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A certificate of registration or naturalisation as a British citizen, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.

If the document is not a passport, a copy of the whole document should be provided.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.

- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is allowed to stay in the UK and is currently allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder which indicates that the named person can currently stay in the UK and is allowed to work relation to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Residence Card issued by the Home Office to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights or residence.
- A current Immigration Status Document containing a photograph issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person may stay in the UK, and is allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A Certificate of Application, less than 6 months old, issued by the Home Office under regulation 18(3) or 20(2) of the Immigration (European Economic Area) Regulations 2016, to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence.
- Reasonable evidence that the person has an outstanding application to vary their permission to be in the UK with the Home Office such as the Home Office acknowledgement letter or proof of postage evidence, or reasonable evidence that the person has an appeal or administrative review pending on an immigration decision, such as an appeal or administrative review reference number.
- Reasonable evidence that a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence in exercising treaty rights in the UK including:-
  - evidence of the applicant's own identity – such as a passport,
  - evidence of their relationship with the European Economic Area family member – e.g. a marriage certificate, civil partnership certificate or birth certificate, and
  - evidence that the European Economic Area national has a right of permanent residence in the UK or is one of the following if they have been in the UK for more than 3 months:
    - (i) working e.g. employment contract, wage slips, letter from the employer,
    - (ii) self-employed e.g. contracts, invoices, or audited accounts with a bank,
    - (iii) studying e.g. letter from the school, college or university and evidence of sufficient funds; or
    - (iv) self-sufficient e.g. bank statements.

Family members of European Economic Area nationals who are studying or financially independent must also provide evidence that the European Economic Area national and any family members hold comprehensive sickness insurance in the UK. This can include a private medical insurance policy, an EHIC card or an S1, S2 or S3 form.

Original documents must not be sent to licensing authorities. If the document copied is a passport, a copy of the following pages should be provided:-

- (i) any page containing the holder's personal details including nationality;
- (ii) any page containing the holder's photograph;
- (iii) any page containing the holder's signature;
- (iv) any page containing the date of expiry; and
- (v) any page containing information indicating the holder has permission to enter or remain in the UK and is permitted to work.
