Subject: Grant Application - 134 Soho Hill, Birmingham, B19 1AF

To Whom It May Concern,

Licensing Enforcement wish to formally make representation to the grant of the Premises Licence. It is not felt that the application promotes the four licensing objectives.

Protection of children from harm

The applicant has not provided evidence that a satisfactory policy will be in place for either the business or the delivery agents that will facilitate the delivery service.

The prevention of public nuisance

I am informed that the applicant intends to offer a delivery service between the hours of 09.00 – 04.00 hours and that the deliveries will be despatched from the rear of the premises on Hamstead Road. This is a residential road with houses opposite the entrance/exit.

Public Safety

None of the proposals from the operating schedule are relevant, the majority relates to health and safety of employees.

The prevention of crime and disorder

There is insufficient evidence to show how the applicant, including his delivery agents, will promote this objective.

It is with the above in mind that Birmingham City Council Licensing Enforcement wish to object to the grant of the Premises Licence in the proposed format.
