Subject: Review of AG Convenience, 182 Brighton Road

Dear Licensing,

West Midlands Police would like to submit representation for the review application made by Trading Standards for AG Convenience, 182 Brighton Road, Balsall Heath, Birmingham, B12 8QN.

The counterfeit product market costs the UK billions each year in unpaid duty. This is a serious problem which breaches the public safety and crime and disorder licensing objectives. Shop owners often use the counterfeit market for their own financial gain, risking customers health and safety, by breaking the law.

This isn't the first time that the premises has come to light for the sale of illicit tobacco and alcohol. Trading Standards have evidenced visits in June and October 2016, followed by January 2017 which show the premises fully complicit in facilitating criminal activity.

The items recovered by Trading Standards clearly show the premises is out of control. This is a serious offence which breaches licensing objectives. Home Office guidelines class the sale and purchase of illicit products as a serious offence, therefore we feel that revocation of the premises licence should be strongly considered by the licensing committee.

Kind Regards
Vicki

Please state the ground(s) for review (please read guidance note 2)

In June 2016 Birmingham Trading Standards received information that A.G. Convenience at 182 Brighton Road, Balsall Heath, Birmingham B12 8AN may be selling illicit cigarettes. Subsequently a trader advisory visit was carried out to inform the licence holder and operator of the store of the allegations and issue a warning to desist from such activities.

On 18 October 2016 the premises was visited as part of Operation Strike, an exercise to find and remove illicit tobacco if found on premises inspected. The exercise was conducted with the assistance of a tobacco detection dog and his handler.

The inspection was conducted during normal daytime opening hours. On arrival there was one man behind the counter who gave his name as Mr Koshan AHMED. A Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984 Code B Notice and a Consumer Rights Act 2015 Notice was issued to Mr AHMED; but he refused to give any further details or sign any notices.

Officers explained the purpose of the visit. After a brief discussion Mr AHMED called a Mr Ishmail MOROVAT into the premises; Mr AHMED had stated that MOROVAT was the part owner of the shop.

Following this an inspection of the shop was undertaken. No infringing goods were found within the sales area.

However the dog handler explained the dog had indicated the presence of tobacco in a locked van, registration number EO55 , parked at the rear of the premises. Mr MOROVAT stated that he did not know where the keys were. A separate search notice was issued for the vehicle but Mr MOROVAT refused to sign this.

Subsequently an officer found the key to the vehicle in the fridge in the premises that was in the rear stock room and the van was subsequently opened.

There were two cardboard boxes in the van which contained tobacco; inside the box were the following packs of non-duty paid foreign branded cigarettes; 28 packs of Marlboro, 16 packs of Jin Ling, 23 packs of L & M, 36 packs of Minsk, 34 packs of NZ, 39 packs of Kent, 46 packs of Pect, 17 packs of Mayfair. In addition there were the following number of packs of hand-rolling tobacco; 12 packs of Amber Leaf, 8 packs of Golden Rising and 12 packs of Bahman.

In total there were 271 packets of non-duty illicit tobacco.

All the items were listed on a seized property record however Mr MOROVAT refused to sign the record. The items were seized and the officers left the premises.

gg/tss/2035/pe/jj/8431999

Please provide as much information as possible to support the application (please read guidance note 3)

In total 271 packets of non-duty or illicit tobacco was seized from the premises on the 18 October 2016 (this is approximate market value of £1500).

All these items would have been smuggled in with no UK duty paid. They are usually supplied to retailers by organised criminal gangs who pay no tax on the products and undermine legitimate trade in the process and circumvent UK law. All such transactions are usually done by cash only and it is difficult if not impossible to trace the source of the supplier or where the products have originated from. This stock was concealed just far enough away from the premises in the assumption the vehicle would not be searched despite the best efforts to hide the key (in the fridge).

There is great responsibility in running a licenced premises it should mean that items of stock whatever they are, are legal, safe and traceable. All tobacco products are harmful but when product is illicit and the provenance unknown this may present further health risks.

The revised 2014 Home Office guidance issued under Section 182 of the Licencing Act 2003 in Section 11.27 under the heading of Review Process states;

"There is certain criminal activity that may arise in connection with licenced premises which should be treated particularly seriously. There are the uses of the licenced premises for the sale or storage of smuggled tobacco and alcohol..."

Given the seriousness of this matter Trading Standards would ask the Committee to consider all the available options when reviewing the licence.

Additional Information:

- At the time of the inspection on 18 October 2016 the Premises Licence holder was Mr. Hamidreza SARDEH.
- Following this on the 19 December 2016 the Premises Licence was transferred to a Mr Ishmail MOROVAT.
- The premises licence holder is now currently Mr. Hamidreza SARDEH; the licence was transferred again to him as of 22 February 2017.

Mr Hamidreza SARDEH was the licence holder from 30/10/2013, until the change of licence to MOROVAT between 19/12/2016 and 22/02/17 when SARDEH returned as the licence holder.

Mr. SARDEH has some history with the Trading Standards Service.

On 1 October 2013 Mr SARDEH received an officer warning when 5 bottles of illicit alcohol were found on the premises. In July 2014 he received a further officer warning when 16 bottles of illicit alcohol were found on the premises.

In June 2016 the Trading Standards Service received information that illicit cigarettes were being supplied from the premises and this gave rise ultimately to the enforcement visit on 18 October 2016.

On 25 January 2017 as part of intelligence led operation the premise of AG Convenience Store was visited again by officers from Trading Standards. After the relevant paperwork was served a search of the premises was done. There were outer wrappers of Marlboro cigarettes found in a bin in the shop and an empty packet of Marlboro all with foreign (Polish) writing on indicating that they were of dubious origin and not legal to be sold in the UK. Interestingly there were two Silk Cut tins behind the counter with 33 single cigarettes, indicating that single cigarettes were being sold. This is a banned practice under legislation.

Also three bottles of non-duty alcohol was found on the shelves on display behind the counter. These bottles were 2 bottles of 70cl Havana Club Spirit Rum and 1 bottle of 70cl Prince Consort Vodka; none of these bottles had a UK duty stamp on and cannot be sold in the UK. More importantly while searching the till area one of the officers found a hidden drawer which could only be opened by the activation of a camouflaged electrical switch; although this drawer was empty, the drawer could only be used to hide illicit tobacco products.

In addition the Trading Standards Service has liaised with Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs (HMRC) who have provided the following information by way of a witness statement:

That on 21 December 2016 a test purchase was made by an officer from HMRC of 20 L&M Red label cigarettes. The cigarettes had foreign markings, a foreign tax stamp and no 'UK DUTY PAID' fiscal mark. These cigarettes had been produced from behind the counter.

This demonstrates that even after the inspection on 18 October 2016 the premises continued to deal in illicit tobacco. This is further compounded by illicit products being found by Trading Standards on 25 January 2017.

Taking account of the history of the premises the Chief Inspector of Weights and Measures is of the view that this is a poorly run business by the licence holder who has been found in possession of illicit products on a number of occasions. Not only is this illegal but it undermines legitimate businesses acting legally.

The licence holder has shown a total disregard for previous warnings and continued to deal in illicit products.

The business has failed on several levels to adhere to the licensing objectives:

"Crime – Failed to prevent crime and disorder" in that there has been a history of being in possession of illicit alcohol and tobacco. It is a criminal offence to supply such goods.

"Safety – Failed to promote public safety" in that the trade had no way to prove the safety or provenance of illicit tobacco or alcohol.

"Child – Failed to promote the protection of children from harm" in that single cigarettes are often used to entice children to purchase cigarettes.

It is therefore requested that the Committee consider all the powers at their disposal.
