Subject: Premises Licence at The Light Restaurant

Dear Licensing team,

I live very close to the Light Restaurant and have significant concerns about the type of licence and hours of operation proposed.

I feel that this will be disruptive to the local area, increase noise, potentially criminal activity and the cars parked on the neighbouring roads.

I oppose the application for both on and off site alcohol sales as I feel this will result in unruly behaviour and could increase criminal activity.

The proposed hours of selling alcohol between the hours of 10.30pm-3am is excessive and unnecessary. In addition to have music playing passed midnight-3 am is also excessively late for an establishment that has residential roads right next to it.

I would be grateful if you would please take my thoughts into consideration when reviewing and granting a licence.

With kind regards,

From:

Subject: Premises Licence at The Light Restaurant and Lounge, 6-8 Alcester Rd South, Kings Heath, B14 7PU

Dear Sir/ Madam

As a concerned resident living close to these premises I would like to strongly oppose this license application. The combination of selling alcohol and live music (until 3am!) is an absolutely terrible prospect for residents and families living nearby. It will lead to significant disturbance and anti-social behaviour.

Please take the only decision which is sensible and reject this application.

Sincerely
